

Ben Hourdequin is a junior at Hanover High School, participating in cross country, indoor track, and outdoor track. He also enjoys playing the piano and singing in a chorus. Academically, he is interested in classical literature, the law, and politics. Additionally, he serves on his school's Council and is passionate about education policy. Ben operates a hiking blog and enjoys listening to Luke Combs. He would like to thank Mrs. Custer, Mr. Holdsworth, and Mr. Fugitt for letting him interview them and for their generosity with their help
